CABERNET MERLOT
FULL HOUSE RSV
BARREL AGED

Deep garnet core with a vibrant purple, red fruit and spice initially on the nose, hints of oak, leather & smoke. More than just “fruit” and “oak” rather a representation of the soils and climate framed by time in the barrel. Beautiful generous palate.

CABERNET MERLOT

We are the originator of the Appassimento process using former tobacco kilns to dry the berries leaving magnificent concentrated fruit. Using this process it can take weeks to decrease moisture in the berries. Almost five years in a combination of French and American oak. Solid copper label handmade in Eastern Europe. 9.3g/L

CHARDONNAY QUEEN OF HEARTS

AGED OAK

Pretty floral aromatics burst from the glass, which are followed by hints of vanilla and oak. Citrus and melon fruits are relevant.

A clean yet kind mouth-feel, beautiful acidity and a generous finish all point to enjoyment with food.

CHARDONNAY RSV QUEEN OF HEARTS

TOASTED OAK

The palate is full and bright, with the smell of vanilla, butter, and coconut, teeming with luscious lemon crème brûlée. Oak fermentation added creaminess and a hint of spice. The wine is aged in French and American oak for over 12 months prior to bottling. 4.3g/L

DRY+ICE POKER FACE

ICED APPASSIMENTO

Riesling was left to hang on the vines until late fall, when only the best bunches were dehydrated in retired tobacco kilns intensifying aromatics and richness. The grapes were then pressed at -10 Celsius.

Intense aromas of mango, apricot and honeyed apricot. Refreshing finish with loads of citrus, oak, and sweet spices lingering long.

WHISKY BLUE CHIP

BARREL AGED

Honey, maple syrup, cereals, biscuits, buttered popcorn, crème caramels, and a final burst of mango on the nose.

With a soft, silky, and oily arrival, apple crumble flavours emerge before the rye and oak spices start to take hold and bring some big warming cinnamon and peppery energy.

Rye bread. Maybe toasted. And with a bit of jam. Lovely.
